From Rome to Paris via the hill villages and market towns of Tuscany, the Cinque Terre & the South of France

Day 1: September 1st: ROME The tour commences today in our 4 star boutique hotel. Get to know your fellow travellers at Welcome Drinks and Dinner. [D]

Day 2: September 2nd: ROME Every day on the Great Trains of Europe Tours, we begin with a full buffet breakfast. Today's sightseeing focuses on Classical Rome and includes entrances to the Pantheon & the Colosseum. "Roma – non basta una vita!" (Rome - one life is not enough). [B]

Day 3: September 3rd: ROME Catholic Rome today, including entrances and a guided tour of St Peter's Basilica, the Vatican Museums and the Sistine Chapel. The fashion shops on the Via Condotti are open this afternoon. Dinner in the Piazza Navona as we watch the water play in Bernini's fountains? [B]

Day 4: September 4th: To SAN GIMIGNANO Tuscany Our luggage is transported on ahead as we commence our love affair with the Great Trains of Europe, taking our reserved First Class seats on Italy's flagship train, the High Speed Eurostar Italia. Then a slower pace through archetypal Tuscan countryside – vineyards, olive groves and cypresses – down the Vale of Chianti and up the hill to San Gimignano, the walled hilltop village with its 13 towers, almost unchanged since the 13th century, our home for 4 nights. [B,D]

Each day a short excursion from San Gimignano is provided (and included in your tour cost). You may choose to join the excursion or simply stay in San Gimignano and relax.

Day 5: September 5th: SAN GIMIGNANO Tuscany A drive off the beaten track today through Southern Tuscan vineyards and olive groves to visit two beautiful hilltop villages and wine centres – Montalcino and Montepulciano. [B]

Day 6: September 6th: SAN GIMIGNANO Tuscany Today is Market day in our 'home' village, San Gimignano. Enjoy. [B]

Day 7: September 7th: SAN GIMIGNANO Tuscany This morning we explore the artistic gem of Siena, which stands today much as it did in the twelfth century. You know it from "My House in Umbria" and "Under the Tuscan Sun". Lunch at one of the open air trattoria on the Campo? On the way home to San Gimignano we visit the walled village of Monteriggioni. [B]

Day 8: September 8th: To CINQUE TERRE A local train along the North West Coast of Italy brings us to the Cinque Terre. We arrive in our seafront hotel in Santa Margherita Ligure. [B,D]

Day 9: September 9th: CINQUE TERRE Today we ramble in the beautiful Cinque Terre, with an opportunity for the sprightly to walk the 5 villages, while others may choose a dip in the Mediterranean or a ridiculously long lunch in a seafront restaurant. [B]

Day 10: September 10th: CINQUE TERRE Nearby Genoa was Christopher Columbus' birthplace and you have the opportunity to visit it today or, alternatively, a leisurely day in your seafront hotel, or a visit to uber-touristy Portofino. [B]

Day 11: September 11th: To VILLENEUVE Provence Along the Mediterranean today and across the French border to join the high speed French TGV train to Provence and the historic village of Villeneuve-les-Avignon. Excursions from Villeneuve are offered each day and included in the tour cost. [B,D]

Day 13: September 13th: VILLENEUVE Provence The nearby village of L'Isle-Sur-la-Sourge prides itself on being France's second largest antiques centre. Visa cards with chronic fatigue syndrome have been known here. L'Isle-Sur-la-Sourge is a very attractive town with streams and water wheels, nicknamed the "Venice of Provence". We move on to Fontaine de Vaucluse for lunch beside the waterfall. We stop in hilltop Gordes for sweeping views of the Luberon. [B]

Day 14: September 14th: VILLENEUVE Provence Off the beaten track again today as we drive through some of Provence's favourite villages – Lourmarin (market day), hilltop Bonnieux, rainbow-coloured Roussillon, Goult – with stops for coffee, lunch & shopping. [B]

Day 15: September 15th: To SARLAT Dordogne An early start from Provence, across Southern France to the Dordogne and the walled mediaeval market town of Sarlat. This is market day and we arrive in time to enjoy the afternoon in the markets. As our luggage arrives we settle in for 3 nights. As before, excursions from Sarlat are offered each day and included in the tour cost, but you are free to choose those that appeal to you or simply potter about our "home" village. [B,D]

Day 16: September 16th: SARLAT Dordogne Winding along the banks of the Dordogne River today we make our way to the mediaeval cliff-face village of Rocamadour – very much ON the beaten track. Pilgrims have come to visit the Black Madonna since the 12th century. BOOKING CONDITIONS

Great Trains of Europe Tours (ABN 75 325 010 987) is an accredited travel agent (ATAS #12982). We are members of IATA (Licence #968366100 and the Concorde Independent Agents' Network).

Costs: All costs in this brochure are expressed in Australian dollars and are based on airfares, and land transport and accommodation costs, and Australian dollar exchange rates effective as at July 27th, 2017. Exchange rate fluctuations in the price of any service provided, beyond the control of Great Trains of Europe Tours, may be passed on to travellers, right up to the date of departure. Please note that some city taxes or bed taxes cannot be pre-paid by agents, and must be paid by the tour member at check-out.

A deposit of $2,500 per person will guarantee a place on your chosen tour (unless already filled, in which case you will be advised of your place on the waiting list. With a maximum tour size of 25 travellers, tours often fill early).

Full final payment is due 90 days before commencement of the tour. Please make payment by cheque to "Great Trains of Europe Tours" or by bank transfer as follows: Heritage Bank, Toowoomba, Queensland, Australia. BSB 638-060 Account Number 111 097 34. Great Trains of Europe Tours currently does not accept payment by credit card.

Cancellation Policy: Cancellation at any time after the deposit is paid will result in the forfeiture of the deposit. Any booking cancelled between 90 days and 45 days before departure will incur a 50% cancellation charge on land content and up to 100% on airfares, depending on the airfare used. Bookings cancelled within 45 days of departure will incur a 100% cancellation charge. Travel insurance will cover cancellation because of illness, death in the family etc. Travel insurance is therefore considered mandatory.

Travel Insurance: A condition of joining a Great Trains of Europe tour is either the purchase of travel insurance through Great Trains of Europe Tours, or documentary evidence of a sufficient level of travel insurance purchased elsewhere.

European Rail Travel: The standard of rail travel in Europe ranges from small and basic local trains to luxury High Speed International trains. On rare occasions European rail companies may change timetables, classes of travel available or rolling stock within the period of validity of a travel brochure. Descriptions of trains & routes provided in this brochure are accurate at the time of printing and provided in good faith. It is not possible to request rail seating either facing or with back to the direction of travel. Many European trains change direction during a journey.

Baggage allowance: Porterage of one suitcase per person is included in tour cost.

Coaches: When itineraries take us away from rail routes and coaches must be used, a seating rotation system applies.

Hotels: European hotel rooms – even in 4 or 5 star hotels – are often smaller than in Australian hotels. Single rooms, particularly, can be very small. Should a traveller who has requested a single room wish to have a quote for the cost of single occupancy of a double room, please ask. Tea and coffee making facilities are rare in European hotels, as are in-room security safes. In some European countries, government environmental agencies restrict the use of air-conditioning in hotels to the summer months.

Travellers sharing a room on a twin share basis will be asked their preferences re a double bed or twin beds, but no guarantee can be given that your request will be met. Hotel star ratings, where provided, are those of the country in which the hotel is situated, and vary from country to country.

Other Important Advice: All tours will proceed if a minimum of 12 travellers have paid deposits by 90 days before scheduled departure. In the highly unlikely (unprecedented) event that there are insufficient travellers for a tour, you will be offered either (i) a full refund of all monies paid, (ii) a modified cost structure for a smaller group, or

(iii) a place on an alternative Great Trains of Europe Tour. Each tour is sold as a package and there can be no refund for any element of the tour (eg. a meal or an excursion) not utilised by the traveller by her / his own choice. Tour costs have built into them the costs associated with researching tours, communicating with overseas suppliers, brochure preparation and marketing. Great Trains of Europe Tours does not claim or imply that some of the inclusions in our tours may or may not be available at a lower price direct from the overseas supplier. Travellers are reminded, however, that purchases made direct with overseas suppliers are generally not covered by Australian Travel Agents licensing protections or the Australian Travel Compensation Fund. Most photographs used in this brochure were taken by the Tour Leader on past tours, but some have been provided by hotels, rail companies or Tourism Boards. Photographs are indicative only and we cannot guarantee that a traveller on a Great Trains of Europe tour will personally see all of the places depicted in them.

Great Trains of Europe Tours reserves the right to decline any reservation or booking request, and may at the Tour Directors discretion terminate any person's involvement in the tour due to disruptive or anti-social behaviour.

Great Trains of Europe Tours does not accept responsibility for any injury, damage, loss, delay, change of schedule or other events which are beyond our direct control such as, but not limited to war, terrorism, civil disturbance, industrial action, acts of government or of God, or mechanical failure such as aircraft, trains or coaches.

Great Trains of Europe Tours cannot be held responsible for changes to provision of services by local European suppliers, but we will do all in our power to provide an alternative service of equal standard to that advertised, or make a cash refund of the difference on the spot.

Contract: The contract between the traveller and Great Trains of Europe Tours, entered into by your signing the Booking form, shall be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Queensland.
